

Thankyou for completing Ofsted's parent view questionnaire. We are very pleased with your responses and have noted the areas we need to be clearer and more informative. We hope you see this development over the rest of the school year. Please remember I am always available to discuss any concerns or queries. I really do believe that Alveley Primary is now a thriving school with well mannered children who always try their best. They are a credit to you!

Mexican Day

This term, Elm's class's topic is 'Mayans'. They are holding a themed day in school on Thursday 28th March where they will be cooking some Mayan food, building a Mayan calendar and other practical activities. Elm class children will be creating a Mayan hat but extra fancy dress costumes is encouraged too. Please see examples below. Mr Smith has his Mayan costume ready!

- School Dinner that day will be Mexican themed .Vegetable or Chicken Enchiladas ,rice, peas and sweetcorn and Tres leches cake. (A milk based cake filled with fruit and cream)

Dates for your Diary

Book Fair Bus

On 17th May the Book Fair will be visiting Alveley . We will be visited by the bus and it will be parked at the front of the school playground. The bus will be open to Parents from 8.45am. Please feel free to pop in anytime during the day school day. The book fair will close at 4.00pm. They accept cash ,credit or debit cards, making it an easy way to buy books that are up to 75% of publisher's prices. .

Clubs

Many thanks to all Parents/Carers who have supported After School club this term. It has been really popular, particularly cooking! Please collect a booking form for next term from Mrs Green.

Making playdough and fruit kebabs.
