

Elm class Newsletter

It has been a busy half term in Elm, we have got up to lots of fun things, many Christmas related! Our topic next half term is 'Ruthless Romans', we hope you have a lovely half term break!

Literacy- We will be looking at a range of different writing styles and approaches. We will be using the book 'Queen of Darkness' to produce a diary entry and a narrative.

Science- We will be looking at electricity, and how it works, using circuits.

Music- In music we will be linking it to our topic and changing the key used in Roman music.

ART- This half term in ART we will be looking at structures and the shapes we can see used in playgrounds.

PSHE- In PSHE we will be learning how to stay safe online and learning about our body.

MFL- We will be looking at French numbers, being able to count up to 12 and saying our age in French.

Computing – This half term we will learning how to code, and coding our own programmes.

R.E.- In RE we will be looking at what the 'Trinity' is and what it means to Christians.

Maths-We will be continuing to master our multiplications and divisions. As well as, looking at length and perimeter.

History- We will be looking and why the Romans settled in Britain, comparing their settlements to the Celts, and looking at what our area was like during the Roman era.

PE this half term will be on a Wednesday morning and Thursday afternoon.

This term we will be doing dance and netball at school. Please bring in proper PE kit for PE sessions. Forest school will be on Wednesday mornings.

We do maths challenges on Tuesdays

Our spelling tests are on Fridays.
